

Breaking the Silence:
An Oral History of the Pro-Choice Movement in Ireland

ORAL HISTORY INTERVIEW AGREEMENT (RELEASE FORM)

---

This agreement constitutes a release by _____ (hereinafter referred to as 'the Interviewee') of a digital recording of an interview that took place on _____ and any and all rights therein to Dr. Mary Muldowney (hereinafter referred to as 'the Interviewer'). The recording, transcript of the recording, and any accompanying material and all rights therein will be the property of the Interviewer, and will be available for use by her unless restrictions on use are specified below.

It is intended that extracts from the printed transcript of the recording will be used by the Interviewer in a history of the pro-choice movement in Ireland since the 1960s. Extracts from the digital recording may be used in academic presentations about the research. If other use of the digital recording is requested (such as radio or television productions incorporating the material) further permission will be sought from the Interviewee for such use.

I, the undersigned have read the above and voluntarily offer the Interviewer full use of the information contained on the digital recording which I made with her and the transcript of this recording. In view of the scholarly value of this research material, I hereby assign all rights, title and interest pertaining to it to the Interviewer unless restrictions are specified overleaf.
