Trinity College Dublin

Trinity and its Neighbours: An Oral History

ORAL HISTORY INTERVIEW AGREEMENT (RELEASE FORM)

---

This agreement constitutes a release of digital recordings and any and all rights therein to Dr. Mary Muldowney, on behalf of the Department of History, Trinity College Dublin. The recordings, transcripts of the recordings, and any accompanying materials and all rights therein will be the property of the Department of History, and will be available for use by the School unless restrictions on use are specified below.

It is intended that extracts from the recordings and the printed transcripts will be used by Dr. Mary Muldowney in a book to be published by the Department of History as Trinity and its Neighbours and in collaboration with the St. Andrew's Resource Centre.

I, the undersigned have read the above and voluntarily offer the Department of History in Trinity College Dublin full use of the information contained on the digital recording which I made with Dr. Mary Muldowney and the transcript of this recording. In view of the scholarly value of this research material, I hereby assign all rights, title and interest pertaining to it to Dr. Mary Muldowney and the Department of History unless restrictions are specified below. This agreement also includes the right of Dr. Mary Muldowney and the Department of History to publish transcriptions and/or abstracts of this recording in electronic format on the Internet.
